278 CHURCHES EXCEED LAST YEAR'S TOTAL; 235 ARE YET TO EQUAL 1933-1934 SUMS

Seven Churches in the Synod Have Contributed Identical Amounts for the Two Years.—Thirty Churches Transferred in February

MANY EXPECTED TO EXCEED IN MARCH

The 235 Behind Need to Give $7,734.60 in March to Reach Last Year's Sum; 12 Churches Are Behind $4,308.61.

CHURCHES AHEAD

Two hundred and eighty-five churches in the Synod of North Carolina had either equalled or exceeded their 1933-1934 gifts to Barium at the close of February. Of this number, 278 had gone beyond last year's sums, and the other seven had given identical amounts. This total number is 30 more than were recorded in The February Messenger, for 29 churches went across in February and one equalled its last year's amount.

The seven churches which have given same amounts for both years are Bridgewater and Fairview in Concord Presbytery; Four Oaks in Fayetteville; Fairview in Granville; Gilead in Orange; Brown Marsh in Wilmington, and Danbury in Winston-Salem. Gilead Church in Orange Presbytery was the new-comer to this group.

Churches ahead of last year's totals are:

CHURCHES BEHIND

There are now 235 churches in the North Carolina Synod which have not reached their 1933-1934 giving to the Orphanage, but it is expected that 50% of these will go across during the month of March, when final gifts will be forwarded to the Orphanage. This report is compiled on the basis of the records at Barium on February 28th. Last month 263 churches were in this group.

These 235 churches need to give $7,734.60 during March to reach their 1933-1934 contributions to the institution, and of this total, 12 of the 235 are behind a combined sum of $4,308.61. This leaves $3,425 99 which the other 223 churches need to give to reach their previous year's marks. Ninety-eight of the churches are behind $10.00 to $100.00 and 125 lack less than $10.00. These 125 are divided between 50 which are behind $5.00 to $9.99; 58 which lack $1.00 to $4.99, and 17 need to give less than one dollar each.

Albemarle Presbytery has the smallest number of churches which have not reached their 1933-1934 sums, and the entire Presbytery is likewise behind the smallest amount. The Presbytery, the number of churches yet to equal their last year's totals, and the combined amount needed from them all is as follows:

Presbytery	Number Churches	Amount Needed
Winston-Salem	20	$1,772.52
Mecklenburg	34	1,484.43
Granville	16	1,034.85

Orange	24	554.27
Concord	25	427.81
Albemarle	12	370.47
Totals	235	$7,734.60

The individual churches and the amounts needed to reach the 1933-1934 totals are as follows:

HOW MUCH DO YOU LIKE THE MESSENGER?

SUNDAY SCHOOL GIVING IS $1,500.00 AHEAD OF SAME MONTH A YEAR AGO

Unusual Response Is Expected in Final Month of Present Year

THREE OTHERS START

New Sunday Schools Being Enrolled as Regular Givers Each Month

Once again the Sunday Schools of the Synod of North Carolina have shown a monthly increase in their giving to the Orphanage, for the responses reaching Barium in February 1935, were almost $100.00 greater than the sum received in February, 1934. There have been only two months in 1934-1935 when the amount received from the Sunday Schools has fallen below the 1933-1934 sum for the same month, and as a whole, the income from the regular offerings is a little over $1,500.00 ahead of the receipts for the first 11 months from the Sunday Schools.

And, now, the final month is at hand. In March, 1934, over $1,800.00 was sent to the Orphanage by the Sunday Schools, and it remains to be seen whether this will be bettered. It is thought at Barium that it will. Some Sunday Schools report on the half-year basis, and a very small minority report only once a year. Then, there are others which send gifts quarterly and these will come to Barium in March, in addition to those Sunday Schools which report each month. Over $2,000.00 are expected from the Sunday Schools in the final go-round.

During February, 12 other Sunday Schools went into that $100.00 classification, meaning that there are now 35 Sunday Schools which have contributed as much as $100.00 to Barium. Those gaining this distinction last month

WHAT SUNDAY SCHOOL WILL BE NEXT?

Add the Sunday Schools of Cypress in Fayetteville Presbytery; Sanford in Orange, and Pollocksville in Wilmington Presbytery to those which are contributing an offering per-month to the Orphanage. All of these have adopted this plan within the past month and a half and first gifts have been received from them. Buffalo (L) in Orange Presbytery has been sending several sums to the Orphanage, but it has not been definitely learned what plan they are following there.

BAND CONCERT IS TO BE RENDERED ON MARCH 24

Cannon Mills Company Band to Visit Barium.—Public Is Invited

Children and workers at the Orphanage and people in this section are going to be given a treat on Sunday afternoon, March 24th., when the Cannon Mills Company Band will give a concert at Barium. It will start at 3:30 o'clock. If the weather is permissible, this will be rendered in the open air at Sloan Field, where the bleachers will afford seating capacity for the hearers. If weather conditions are inclement or too cold, the concert will be given in the auditorium of the grammar school building.

It is very seldom that the boys and girls at Barium have an opportunity to hear a band concert, and they are anticipating the appearance of this Kannapolis outfit. Mr. R. G. McGirt, the director of the organization, has promised a varied program that will not

ATHLETIC TEAMS ENJOY GOOD WINTER PROGRAM

Wrestling Team Won State Championship for Second Successive Year

Very little has been said about our winter athletics, but that doesn't mean that we haven't been having some. It has been a very interesting basketball season, and a most satisfactory wrestling season.

Our girls ended the basketball season just half-way up the ladder. They lost their games to Mooresville, Statesville and Hickory, and won the games from Lexington, China Grove and Belmont. Their first loss—to Mooresville—was by a one point decision. There were only two regulars on the girls' team from the senior class, and that means that there will be more veterans to build around next year than we had at the beginning of this year. So, we are looking forward to the 1936 season with fine hopes.

In the boys' division, our boys all but won the South Piedmont Conference championship. They lost one game to Lexington and one to Hickory. The loss to Hickory was somewhat of an upset, as they had beaten Hickory rather easily the first time, and, strange to say, Hickory's victory happened on Barium's court. As it was, the team landed in second place, winning both games over Statesville, Mooresville, China Grove and Belmont.

The 110-pound boys' team again won the championship in their conference, after a bad start. They lost their first game to Scotts, but won all the others.

The eighth grade girls, with only one girl on the team who had ever played ball before, showed steady improvement during the season, and won two games, and tied one in their season's play.

The Barium wrestling team opened its season against Durham, in Durham, on January the 18th., and lost by one point, 12 to 11. This is the only defeat Barium suffered by a high school this year. On the return meet with Durham at Barium, the score was 22 to 5 in favor of Barium. So evidently the long trip to Durham and from Durham to Barium had something to do with the efficiency of the wrestlers.

The Draper "Y" defeated Barium 12 to 9; and Spray's Y. M. C. A. team defeated Barium 14 to 13. These teams are made up of men for the most part and usually wrestle college teams on pretty fair terms.

Barium had two wrestling

Albemarle, Fayetteville, Granville, Mecklenburg, Orange and Winston-Salem Presbyteries contributed more in February, 1935, than they did in February, 1934, when the Table of Receipts for the past month and that for the same period of a year ago are compared. This leaves only three Presbyteries, Concord, Kings Mountain and Wilmington, which did not come up to their February, 1934, amounts.

As a whole, the Synod of North Carolina contributed eight-tenths of a cent more in the past 28 days than in February, 1934, and at the conclusion of the eleventh month of 1934-1935, Synod was 4.9 cents ahead of 1933-1934. The minimum amount which has been needed is $1.10 per church member, while 78.3 cents per member has been received.

The only change in the standing of the Presbyteries taking place in February was a further advance of Orange, which went into fourth place, sending Kings Mountain back to fifth. Orange Presbytery was in seventh place a year ago, but ranks fourth today. Concord maintained its lead of the Synod, with Winston-Salem Presbytery only five cents behind.

Taking the 11-month period as a whole, Albemarle, Concord, Fayetteville, Granville, Orange and Wilmington Presbyteries have contributed more per member than in 1933-1934, but the Presbyteries of Kings Mountain, Meck-

IREDELL COUNTY CIVIC CLUBS ENTERTAINED

Annual Supper Served to Five Clubs in This County. Many Were Here

With an increased attendance over last year, five civic clubs of Iredell County gathered at Barium on Friday night, March 8th, for the annual supper which they attend at the Orphanage. The Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs of Mooresville and the Lions, Kiwanians and Rotarians of Statesville are the civic organizations of this county, and these and their guests assembled promptly for the supper at 6:30, with a short program by the Orphanage children immediately following.

The members of the various clubs pay for their supper and that of their guests, as they would at their regular place of assembly. With one or two exceptions, the supper served at the Orphanage is always made up entirely of products raised on the local properties.

The menu that night consisted of a Walt Disney Special (three little pigs, or, in one word, sau-

(FORM OF BEQUEST.)

"I give and bequeath to the REGENTS OF THE ORPHANS' HOME OF THE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA, Incorporated Under the laws of the State of North Carolina, (HERE NAME THE BEQUEST.)

The manager of the Playhouse Theatre in Statesville offered free tickets once a month, to the boy and girl who made the highest average in their respective grades each month. This has engendered more study on the part of the leaders and is but another evidence of generosity by the management toward the Orphanage.

—P. O. H.—

Do you have a birthday in March? Presents and good wishes, we hope, have or will come to you. Why not have a little celebration of your own milestone event by operating Barium for a while that day? See the schedule of what it costs for daily operation elsewhere and make your own birthday a happier one because of your assistance to Barium.

—P. O. H.—

These annual basketball tournaments at Barium are growing in popularity. The attendance at the one in February superceded any previous records. And, there's lots of good will created for the Orphanage by bringing together basketball teams from 10 counties. The Barium teams do not participate, but the members of the Orphanage quintet and sextette act as hosts to the visiting aggregations.

—P. O. H.—

There is a possibility that the Orphanage is going to have its best financial report on March 31, 1935, that it has had since 1930-1931. Whether this is a reality depends upon the receipts from Synod in this final month of the fiscal year. It will have to be a much better income than the reports received for March during the past three years, but we think that is going to be true.

—P. O. H.—

February 25th this year was quite a different day from that of February 25, 1934. It was on the latter date that the campus was devastated by an ice and sleet storm, when lights were out for almost 24 hours and when telephone service was disrupted for nearly a month. This February 25th was a balmy and delightful day. We're glad. We would not want to be annually visited by such a storm as we experienced a year ago.

—P. O. H.—

The Smyrna Auxiliary down in Fayetteville Presbytery showed its appreciation of The Barium Messenger as an organization by sending us $10.00 last month. What a thrill that was to us! We commend this action to the consideration of other Auxiliaries. We're approaching the close of the fiscal period and if Auxiliaries have surpluses it would be fine to set aside some of it and send it to Barium for this paper. This applies to churches and Sunday Schools, too.

—P. O. H.—

A friend of the Orphanage has recently forwarded us the June, 1902, copy of "Our Fatherless Ones," the name of the Orphanage paper before it was changed to The Barium Messenger. There is much interesting reading matter in it about the Home at that time, its activities and contributions from various organizations and individuals. We notice that a "Press Fund" was listed, and our conclusion is that this was money contributed toward publishing the paper. In that issue alone, $33.25 was recorded as having been given by individuals toward the cost of issuing the publication. We hope our friends will take cognizance of what was being done 32 years ago toward publishing an Orphanage paper.

—P. O. H.—

The Dacotah Sunday School, over near Lexington, is evidently trying to duplicate the performance of the Beulaville Sunday School. Dacotah started the plan of giving an offering to Barium in December and every month since that time they have shown increases. In December it was $2.87; in January the Offering amounted to $4.89, and it went to $6.50 in February. That's great! By the way, Beulaville Sunday School showed another increase in February, which makes a continuously larger amount every month since the fiscal year started in April. Their gift reached Barium on March 1st, too late for recording in this month's issue of The Messenger, but it will be there next month.

—P. O. H.—

One of our friends sent us $1.00 not long ago towards defraying the cost of publishing The Messenger. Each dollar means a lot to us, and we wrote and told her so. In a few days came another letter and in it was another dollar which a friend of hers had likewise given toward the paper. "Your letter received and I am sure I did not realize how much so little could mean to you," she wrote, and continuing, "I, immediately, asked my good friend, ———— ————, if she would not like to send you one dollar for The Messenger and she was delighted to do so. Said she knew of 'no place' she had rather send one than to you. * * Her dollar is enclosed in my letter, as I promised to send it for her." And, she went on to write that she expected to get other friends to send dollars, too. That's a commendable spirit. There are 21,000 copies of The Messenger mailed out each month. Suppose these 21,000 people felt similarly to this friend of the Orphanage? Won't you do more than "supposing"?

—P. O. H.—

THOUGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON AND OTHER THINGS.

We recently had a Sunday School lesson on Annanias and Saphira. And it sometimes puzzles us as to just who are the modern examples of these two characters. Annanias was certainly not struck dead for his failure to contribute to the church. Nor was he struck dead for cheating. If that particular punishment was meted out to all modern people who fail to contribute to the Lord's work, or who cheat in business, the population of the world would shrink so much that the unemployment situation would handle itself!

Just who are today committing the crime of Annanias and Saphira? Well, to begin with, we must analyze this situation a little bit to see if we can find out. This man and woman were church members. They evidently stood pretty high in the circles of the church, and when the proposal to do the thing sponsored at that time was made, they were evidently right up in front, answering with an affirmative vote where everybody could see them. If there were any papers to sign, they no doubt affixed their signatures early and prominently; but when the time came to deliver, they tried to hold their reputation and their money, too.

The crime that they apparently committed and for which such terrible punishment was meted out was for saying that they were doing something and then not doing it. We want to submit for your consideration, a few cases and ask you to pass judgment, and see if it is possible that there could be some kinship between the sin of Annanias and these modern things?

Several days ago, a minister approached us and said: "You know we have a very delicate situation at our church. Over two years ago our Church and Sunday School voted to send one month's offering from the Sunday School to the Orphanage. This was brought up before the Session, was duly passed and all done in perfect order, but our treasurer just refuses to send it. Now our treasurer is a fine man, but it just seems that he can not get it into his head—or won't—that this money ought to go to Barium. He just keeps the money, and when we need anything—money to pay the preacher, money to buy Sunday School books, he uses it for that and does not send it to Barium."

And, the church goes right along telling its Sunday School members that the contribution today is for Barium Springs, and they continue to turn it over to the treasurer who is a good man, but does not feel inclined to use it as ordered. They say they are turning this money over for a certain part of the Lord's work, but they hold it back.

The preacher who told us this seemed to think that his case was unusual. We venture to say that there is not a month that goes by that we do not have similar complaints, as though we could do something about it. Here is another church that was taking an offering for Barium in their Sunday School. The Sunday School gifts increased under this program from four to five dollars a Sunday up to in the neighborhood of $25.00. After a while some thrifty members of the church thought that that was entirely too much to send to Barium so they continued to take the offering, but just sent us $10.00, using the balance for their current needs which were manifold. They told the congregation that they were taking the collection for Barium, but they held back part for other purposes.

It doesn't say in the Bible for what Annanias and Saphira held back that money. Possibly they wanted to endow a college or wanted to help build a new church, or something. It doesn't seem important what they were holding it back for. The important thing is that they held it back.

Here is another church—a right wealthy church this one is—that has a treasurer who feels that the Thanksgiving Offering is entirely too much, and he divides that Thanksgiving Offering up, only sending 7½% of it to Barium. The rest of it is going into the other church causes. They tell the congregation in that church: "We want you to contribute liberally to this Thanksgiving Offering for our poor helpless children at Barium Springs." They put on all the pressure; they tell all the sob stories, and then when that money comes in liberally, they send 7½% to the cause they said they were giving it for, and hold back the rest, and use it for something else.

Here is another church that took an offering of $1,200.00 at one Thanksgiving. But, when the time came to send that to the Orphanage, they were behind with the pastor's salary and the coal bill, and several other items, and they only sent $200.00. They told the people that this contribution was for the Orphanage. They sent $200.00 and held back $1,000, and when we were inclined to make an issue of this, we were hushed up. "You mustn't say anything about this. If you do, you will hurt somebody's feelings and cause a split in our church," was the advice given us.

Oh, we know that the relatives of Annanias must have felt terribly about Peter's rude outspoken words. It would have been so much better to have whispered that where it could have been kept in the family.

We have recently reduced the size of our Messenger. It does not carry as much space as formerly; hence it won't be possible for us to enumerate all of the instances like this that have come to our attention. We should have to get out an extra edition.

These are not isolated cases; they are numerous. It's funny, but people that are scrupulously honest with trust funds, with other peoples' money in everything, will somehow use contributed money as though they could do with it as they pleased. Money contributed for benevolences is constantly used for paying local bills, and covered up with some explanation like this: "Well, we can not exist unless we pay our local bills. We had better be honest than be so liberal." They are all saying identically what Annanias said "Here it is," but holding back a part.

One of the satisfying things about Sunday School lessons, particularly temperance lessons, is that we can get so indignant over them. We can point out the helpless, down and out figure in the gutter, and just pour out our wrath upon him—the cheat, the swindler—all these things at which we can point the finger of wrath and denunciation. And, no doubt, we can think back 2,000 years and burn poor old Annanias up, and if that is all we did about it, that Sunday School lesson would be absolutely wasted.

Let's get the finger of scorn pointed right at those of ourselves who are guilty even today, in this enlightened age in our own church and our beloved North Carolina, of the very crime of Annanias and and Saphira! What a pity that along with this crime, we do not have a survival of such characters as Peter to stand out and call it by the name that it deserves!

MR. W. D. TROUTMAN "NEIGHBOR"

On Friday, March 1st., in our neighboring town of Troutman, there died a man whom we believe will be missed by more people than any man of our acquaintance. He had lived at the one place all of his life. He had held one job for 40 years. He had had a part in every community enterprise that looked to the good of his neighbors. His circle of influence had expanded until it took in thousands of people. The school at Troutman was one of the things that occupied a lot of his thoughts and was his pride. The Troutman Fair was started through his efforts and his suggestions. He had lots of things that he was interested in, but he was never too busy to lend a helping hand to anyone who sought his help, or whom he saw needed his help.

At his funeral many old Barium Springs boys and girls were present. There were those of recent years, and those of that first group of youngsters who composed the original family at Barium Springs. All had known him and loved him.

We don't know what word to use in describing this man. If he had been active in national affairs, we would call him a statesman; if he had used his unusual talents for the accumulation of money, we would call him a financier. He certainly was a great organizer, but never acquired any fame in this because his talents in this regard were for the help of other people rather than for himself. Of all the words that might be used, we believe the one that fits best is that homely word, Neighbor. He was the ideal neighbor.

We know the town of Troutman will miss him. Our family at Barium will miss him. He had a way of being neighborly and in making all who knew him want to be neighborly.

ANNIE LOUISE

Hello Folks,

We have about a month and a half of school left. We will all be glad when the school year is over.

On February 14th., Mrs. Brigance, the mother of one of the girls, sent each one of us a Valentine. We appreciated them very much.

One of the girls had a birthday and her mother sent her a cake. We enjoyed helping her eat it.

Two of our girls are going to the movies for February for making the highest average in school. We hope there will be more next month.

We were invited to the movies last month to see "The Last Gentleman." We enjoyed it very much.

We have enjoyed all the basketball played on our court this winter.

We were pleased to have Mrs. Kerr stay with us while Miss McGoogan spent the week end with her friends near Raeford.

Several of our girls were in the program given when the Civic Clubs met at Barium.

Nancy Parcell

HOWARD

To Friends:

This is the last day of February and we came home with our report cards. One of our sixth grade girls, Mary Adams, made the highest average in her school room and will go to the movies for this month.

Shortly before Valentine Day, Miss Woods gave each of us a Valentine; then we made a great many more just like it and on Valentine Day we had boxes in our school rooms and they were handed out to us.

We thank Mr. Johnston and Mr. Grier for letting us have some real basketball goals. We enjoy playing basketball very much; also baseball.

Mary Adams' grandmother and aunt came to see her last Saturday and brought us some walnuts and fruit. We thank them.

Thelma Robards, one of our Howard girls, was promoted to Rumple Hall and Polly Garrett, from Annie Louise, has come to live with us.

Rhoda Daniels and Fay Blue were the only girls at Howard to be sick during the month of February.

May and Mabel Shoaf enjoyed a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Cook, of Winston-Salem.

We are looking forward to the annual civic club supper for such clubs in Iredell County, which event will take place here on March 8th.

They are drilling a well near Howard. We are hoping to have plenty of water for the swimming pool this summer.

ALL THREE

Regular gifts were received from some organization within seven churches last month to enable them to be classified with the 75 previously reported which have helped the Orphanage this year through the three channels of the church budget, Auxiliary and Sunday School. This means that 82 churches have aided the Orphanage in this manner so far in 1934-1935. In March many others are expected to be added, for a deluge of gifts are expected from Auxiliaries which have not helped in the regular support fund to date, and reports from them will enable many more to be thus grouped.

Front Street and Rocky River churches in Concord Presbytery; Barbecue in Fayetteville; Fuller Memorial and Warrenton in Granville; Myers Park in Mecklenburg and Sanford in Orange Presbytery are the new churches in the following list of 82:

Albemarle Presbytery—Ahoskie, Edenton, Goldsboro, Greenville, New Bern, Pinetops, Rocky Mount First, Washington, Wilson.

No. of Organizations

Fayetteville Presbytery now has the unusual distinction of both the greatest number of Sunday Schools and Auxiliaries helping the Orphanage regularly. Fayetteville has consistently led in the total number of Sunday Schools devoting an offering per month to the Orphanage, and Mecklenburg has generally led the Auxiliary group, but the response from the latter in Fayetteville Presbytery in February gave it this additional honor.

There are 49 Sunday Schools in Fayetteville which have made regular reports to Barium this year. The closest competitor in this group is Mecklenburg Presbytery with 37. Thirty-three Auxiliaries in Fayetteville have sent regular gifts to the Orphanage in 1934-1935, and Mecklenburg is likewise runner-up with 32.

Concord maintains its substantial lead in the churches helping the Orphanage through the church budget. There are 44 churches in Concord Presbytery doing this. Orange and Mecklenburg Presbyteries are tied for second with 31 apiece.

In February eight churches, three Sunday Schools and eight Auxiliaries joined those which had previously made regular contributions to the Orphanage. The total is now 247 Sunday Schools, 215 churches and 199 Auxiliaries for the entire year.

The number of organizations helping, according to Presbyteries, follow:

Presbytery	Ch.	S. S.	Aux.
Albemarle	21	17	17
Concord	44	33	26
Fayetteville	20	49	33

only include several numbers by the 35-piece band, but will be interspersed with vocal quartet and solo numbers, and special string numbers, too.

The Cannon Mills Company, which fosters the band, requires that they give one concert similar to the one to be rendered at Barium every month, and the leaders of the band felt that they would like to come to Barium. Authorities here were glad to accept this splendid offer. The visitors are already assured of an attentive and appreciative audience.

An invitation is extended to the public to visit Barium Sunday afternoon, March 24th., at 3:30 o'clock for this concert.

sage), Sweets from Mesopotato (candied yams), Survivor of the Flood (Ham), Ceres in a Fine Way (grits), Hot Shots from the Underworld (peas), Pilopanesian Pillows (rolls), Neptune Gone Muddy (coffee), Celestial Way (milk), and What I Do to Be Heard (ice cream).

A mixed glee club of Barium boys and girls who sang "Hats Off!" to the Kiwanians, Rotarians and Lions started the program. Following was a short play, "Funny Little Party," in which Fred Cole, Amos Hardy and Scott Blue were the three little pigs; Thomas Morgan, the big bad wolf; Eugene Bonnous, Mickey Mouse; Rachel Mills, Minnie Mouse; Vance Smith, Sandy; Jackie Newnam, little Orphan Annie; Stanley Smith, Skippy, and Louise Brock, the poor little girl. The band of the Synod's Cottage boys played the "Bells of St. Marys'" and the conclusion was the singing of the Barium alma mater by the assembled crowd.

In reporting the affair The Statesville Daily said, in part:

"At the close of the program, Mr. Jos. B. Johnston, general manager of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home, spoke briefly, extending welcome to the visitors. Mr. Johnston explained that when they launched the idea of joint dinner meetings of the clubs of the two Iredell towns thirteen years ago, that they put 'some frills' in the manner of serving the meal, but he decided that what the guests wanted was some 'solid rations,' therefore he had been carrying out that idea in later years. The fellowship, the excellent dinner and the entertainment were up to the high expectations of the civic people who look forward, with pleasant anticipations, to these meetings every year."

Income Distribution

The Sunday Schools led in giving to the Orphanage in February, sending the institution $1,054.39 of its regular income of $2,657.32. The church budgets contributed $833.69, and the Auxiliaries were not far behind with the remaining amount of $769.24. No reports were received in February from Young People's Societies.

For the entire year, the church budgets are leading the field with the sum of $14,200.70 from that source. The Sunday Schools are $1,764.58 behind with an aggregate of $12,436.12, while the Auxiliaries have contributed $6,725.80 to the regular support fund and $55.89 has come to Barium from Young people's groups.

Alumni News

Friends of Miss Eula Mae Barnhardt will regret to learn of her death in Concord on February 21st at the age of 29 years. She was at the Orphanage from 1919 to 1923. She is a half-sister of Pearl Bostian, who finished at Barium in 1933.

Announcement has been received at Barium of the engagement of Miss Bonnilyn Brown, who was at Barium from 1925 to 1931, to John Westley Games, both of whom reside in Norfolk, Va. The wedding will take place this spring.

Julian West, who has been with the Charlotte branch of the Statesville Flour Mills, was recently transferred to the Goldsboro branch of the same concern.

ANNUAL COURT TOURNEY STAGED AT ORPHANAGE

Girls' and Boys' Team of Catawba Crowned Champions—Big Attendance

An entirely new set of champions were crowned last month, at the conclusion of the fourth annual mid-Piedmont basketball tournament staged at Barium Springs, for Catawba high school, both boys and girls, won the titles. This is the first time that Catawba's court aggregations have advanced very far in the local tournament. Their championships replaced those of the Pilot Mountain girls and the Paw Creek boys which won out in 1934.

In the final games Monday night, February 25th., the Catawba girls were successful in defeating the Sherrill's Ford sextette, another Catawba county participant. The score was 39 to 32, and during the course of the game the count was tied seven times. Only towards the last were the Catawba girls able to pull away to a victorious margin. The boys' game, after an exciting first few minutes, developed into a walk away for Catawba, the final score being 54 to 24 in their favor. Paw Creek, the victim, was trying for its third successive title to gain permanent possession of the loving cup.

At the conclusion of play that night a number of awards were made, and these were made possible largely through the merchants of Statesville. Large loving cups were presented to winners of the tournament, which they retain for a year. Smaller loving cups were presented to them, and these they keep permanently. Small gold basketballs and silver basketballs were respectivey presented to members of the winning and runner-up teams. Trophies were awarded to Rimmer, of Cornelius, winner of the girls' foul-shooting contest and to Little, a Catawba player, who was the successful boy in this phase of the tournament. Rimmer shot 20 fouls out of 25 tries, and Little caged 22 out of 25.

A capacity crowd was at Barium throughout the entire tournament, and standing room was used on more than one occasion. The gross gate receipts were over $315.00, with the admission prices at 25c and 15c, except the final night when they were 35c and 25c. During the tournament a refreshment stand was operated, and the gross receipts of that was approximately $100.00.

The results of all the games, prior to the finals, follows:

Preliminaries

Girls—Sherrill's Ford 32, Valdese 12; Cool Springs 27, Bain 19; Celeste Henkel 27, Harrisburg 10; Landis drew a bye; Catawba 25, Paw Creek 14; Troutman 29, Stony Point 12; Scotts 21, Cornelius 10; Banoak 30, Granite Quarry 15.

Boys—Paw Creek 34, Advance 13; Granite Quarry 16, Harmony 11; Cooleemee drew a bye; Celeste Henkel 29, North Brook 16; Scotts 22, Woodleaf 9; Ball's Creek 37, Long Creek 17; Catawba 37, Harrisburg 3; Copeland 31, Mt. Pleasant 12.

Quarter-Finals

Girls—Sherrill's Ford 31, Cool Springs 20; Celeste Henkel 29, Landis 19; Catawba 33, Troutman 10; Banoak 18, Scotts 16.

Boys—Paw Creek 33, Granite Quarry 5; Celeste Henkel 21, Cooleemee 16; Ball's Creek 18, Scotts 17 (decided in extra period); Catawba 30, Copeland 14.

Semi-Finals

Girls—Sherrill's Ford 34, Celeste Henkel 33; Catawba 38, Banoak 24.

Boys—Paw Creek 31, Celeste Henkel 30; Catawba 45, Ball's Creek 21.

E. Sherrill, of Sherrill's Ford, led the girls in scoring during the entire tournament with 73 points, with Brown, of Catawba, runner-up with 71. First honors among the boys went to Wood, of Paw Creek, with 43 tallies, and Wike, of Catawba, was second with 44.

ATHLETIC TEAMS

meets with Salisbury, winning the first at Salisbury by the score of 31 to 11. In wrestling Salisbury in both meets, there were bouts in the 85-pound and 95-pound classes, with double bouts in the 125 and 135.

On the return meet with Salisbury the score was 22 to 3, in favor of Barium.

In the North Carolina high school wrestling meet staged at Chapel Hill for the championship of the state, Barium won the title for the second year in succession with a score of 33 points. Greensboro was runner-up with 31 points.

Eugene Bosworth in the 108-pound, and Ralph Spencer in the 145 came through to win in the finals.

As a final home event for the wrestling team, a meet was arranged with the Tech High School of Atlanta, Georgia champions and undefeated for five years!

This team of fine looking boys arrived in the afternoon of March 2nd., met our boys that night before a large and interested group of spectators. Possibly the long trip slowed up this Atlanta team for the final score was 28 to 5, in favor of Barium.

Barium goes to Atlanta for a return meet on March 28th. The team will make a slow trip to Atlanta, stopping at Thornwell Orphanage to spend the night, but will make the trip back from Atlanta in one day. They will probably set a record for low-cost transportation, and it is hoped that they will definitely bring back the championship of the two states.

The winter sports are over. The final big event at Barium was the invitational tournament held each year, and one in which the Barium teams do not participate. The cash proceeds from this tournament are used to promote and keep going the winter and spring athletics in the Orphanage.

SIX PRESBYTERIES

lenburg and Winston-Salem are behind last year's record of this date.

Thanksgiving Offering continued to reach the Orphanage in February. The exact amount received was $700.51, with every Presbytery having a share in this sum. At the close of February, Winston-Salem Presbytery lacked only a few dollars of coming up to the 1933 Thanksgiving Offering, and before The Messenger went to press a Thanksgiving Offering had reached Barium from a church in that Presbytery which will send them beyond the '33 aggregate. So it can be said that every Presbytery gave a larger Thanksgiving Offering in 1934 than in 1933.

The comparative Thanksgiving gifts for the two years is as follows:

Presbytery	1933 Total	1934 To Date
Albemarle	$1.675.90	$1,921.58
Concord	5,570.52	8.960.23
Fayetteville	2,706.23	3,823.41
Granville	2,249.29	2,457.19

Winston-Salem	2,916.47	2,908.74
